INITIAL RESEARCH QUESTIONS

- Bigger Question
 - How, from looking at baptismal records, the way that Indios were classified and the way they created kinship circles contributed to the sustaining of cultural networks generationally.
- Smaller Questions
 - How many indios were recorded as originating from rancherias?
 - How many indios were recorded as originating from missions?
 - How many godparents were recorded as “Indios”?

ANALYTICS AND ANALYTICAL METHODS

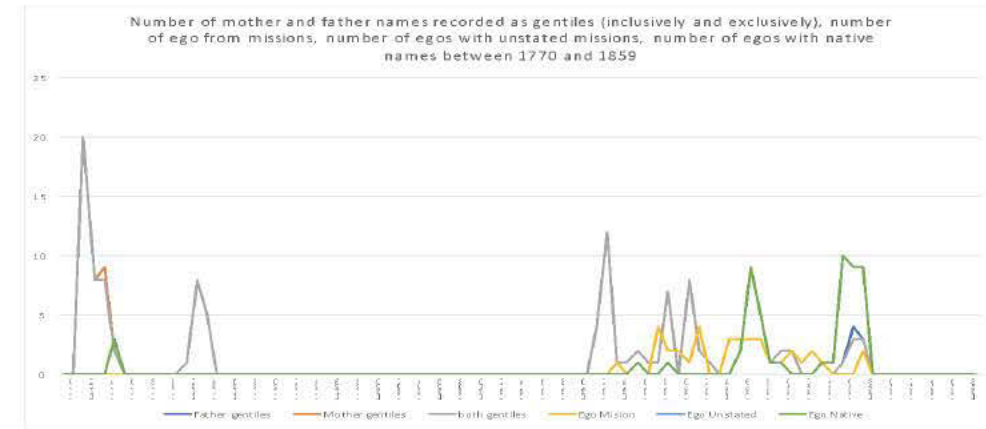

- Quantitative analytical data did not reflect original record data
 - Many years were missing data
 - Some records were not counted or recognized

HISTORICAL INTEGRITY AND STANDARDIZATION

- Ensured records were accurately copied without any alterations
- Lack of standardization between each record made it difficult to quantify
- Focused on analyzing the qualitative data and quantifying manually

RANCHERIAS & MISSIONS

ORIGINS OF INDIOS

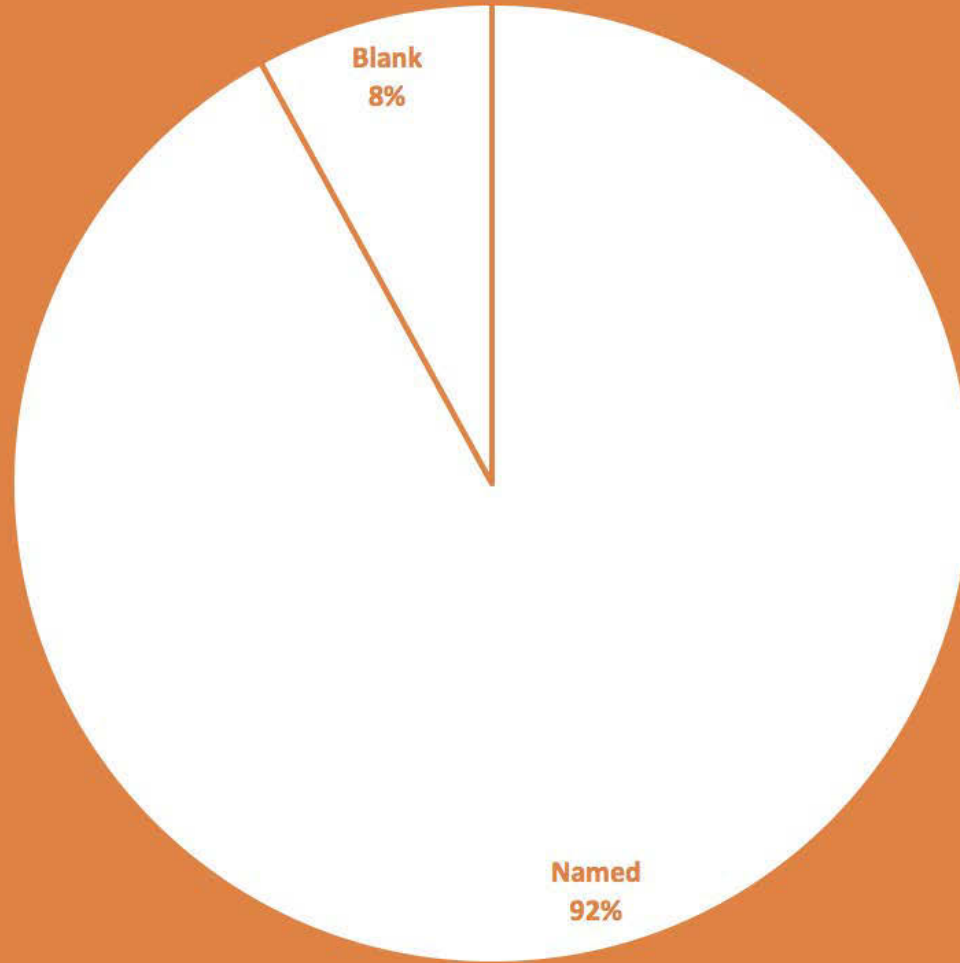

HOW MANY INDIOS AND INDIAS ARE FROM RANCHERIAS?

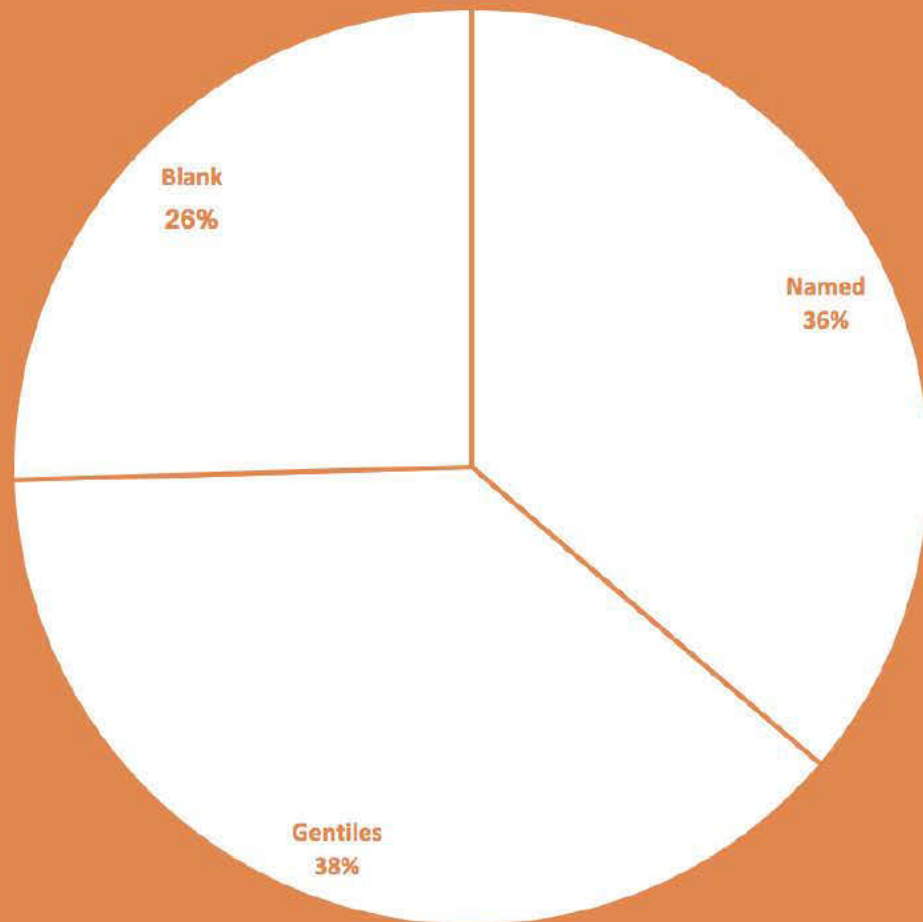

COMPADRAZGO

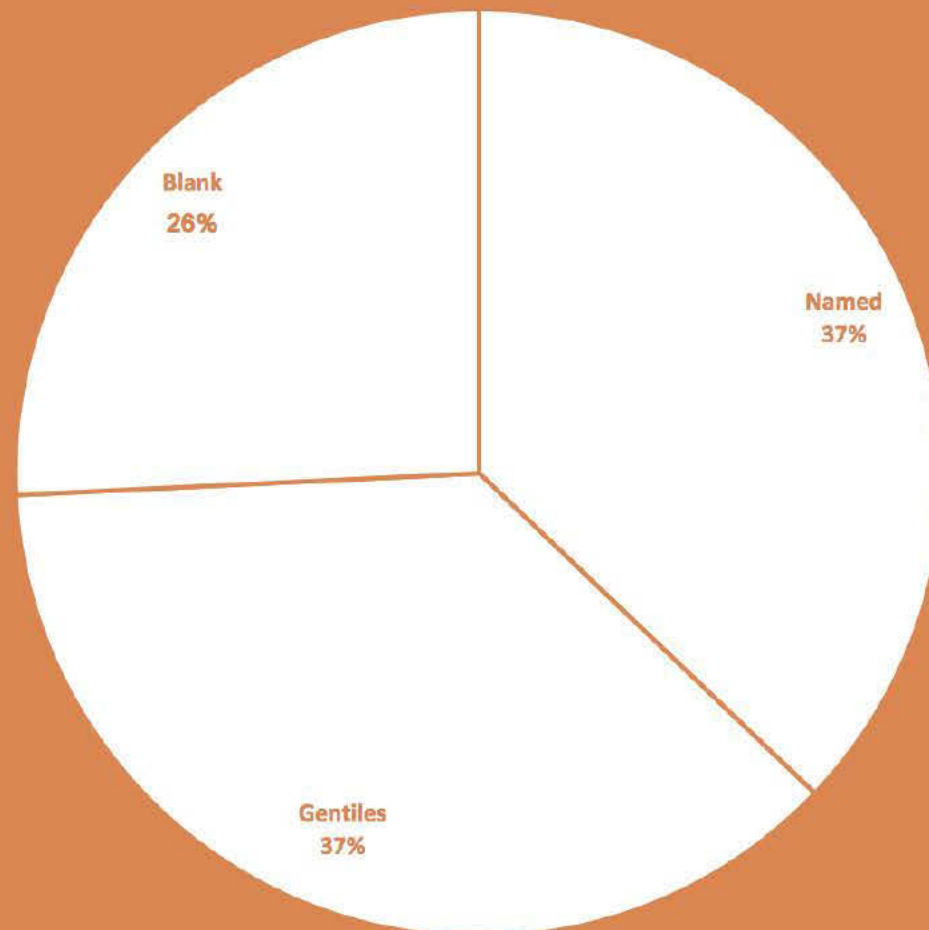

HOW MANY GODPARENTS WERE NAMED?

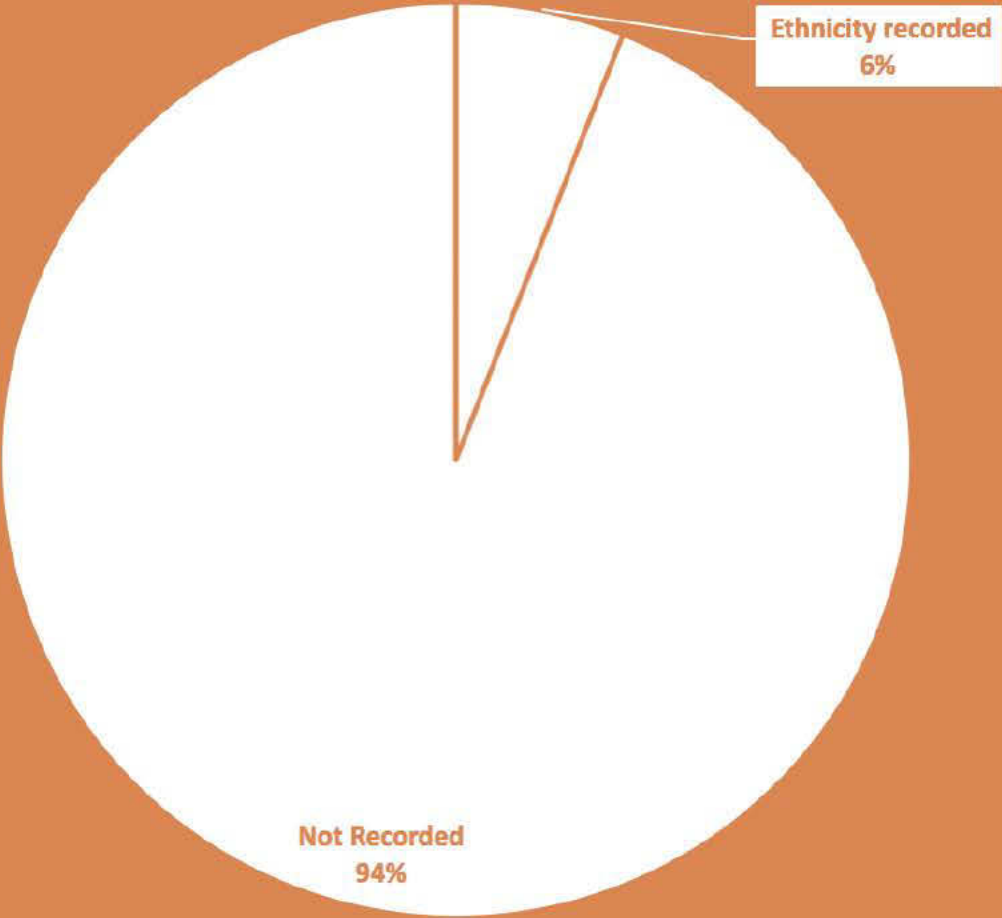

EGO MOTHER IDENTIFIERS FROM 1770-1859

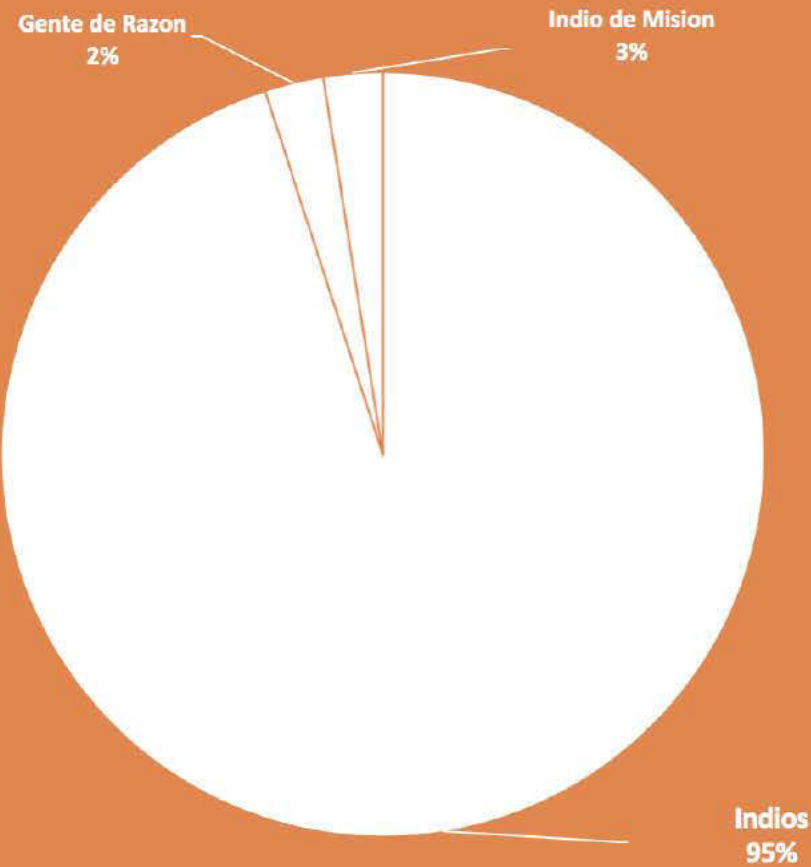

EGO FATHER IDENTIFIERS FROM 1770-1859

HOW MANY GODPARENTS HAD A RECORDED ETHNICITY?

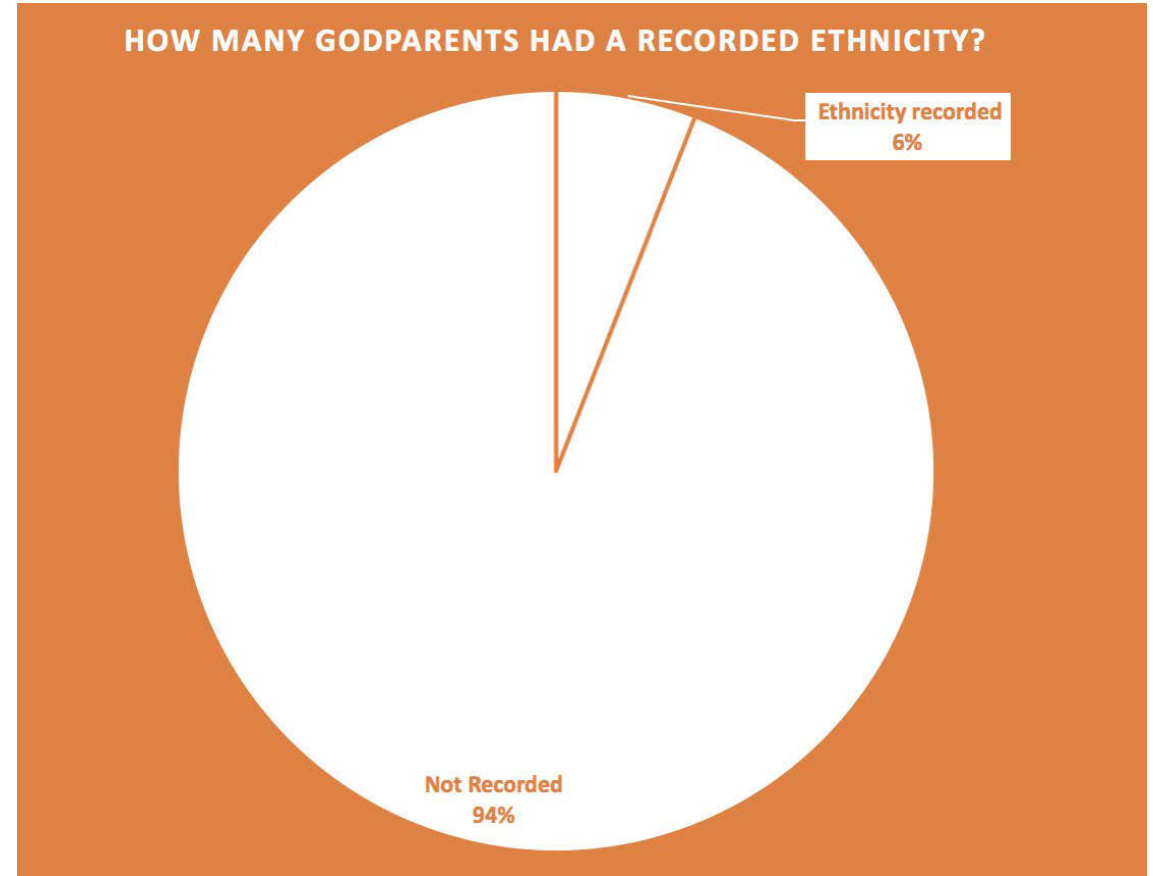

WHAT WERE THE ETHNICITIES OF GODPARENTS WITH RECORDED ETHNICITIES?

FURTHER INVESTIGATION

- Limited information on ethnicity
- Godparents were judged based on whether they were a good catholic or not
- Godparents were selected/recommended based on their reputation within the mission
- Patricia Seed (16th and 17th Centuries)
 - Honor signified moral integrity
 - Integrity toward religion
 - Established reputation for honorable behavior

CONCLUSION

- Research questions lead to inconclusive results with analytics
- Analytics did not preserve intricacy of the data
- Made our own claims looking at the qualitative data
 - Relationship between rancherías and missions
 - Compadrazgo
- Research Methods
 - Trade off between finding some sort of conclusion with research, and the fact that research is hindering
 - Nothing is conclusive, history is just arguments
