

*Ali
Wistalia*

Ali is Zen's older sister, and the first princess of Clarines. She meets Shirayuki after the events of the anime. She is an academic and an explorer, and is only in Clarines twice a year. She has her own personal guard of 10 who travel with her and help her bring technology and arts from other cultures back to Clarines.

She adores her brother Zen, and still treats him as if he were 5 not 19. She loves her older brother Izana but they tend to disagree on politics surrounding rank. Her fiancé is Garack Gazelt, the head herbalist at Wistal Castle. Their plan is to get married next winter when Ali comes back from her excursion, but Garack highly doubts that it'll ever happen.

*Racheal
Harper*

Racheal is Eleanor Cambell's older sister. She lives with her husband, and runs a factory and shipping company in Hampshire. She's not particularly fond of her husband but considering he supports her and her business she really can't complain. Since her husband is a member of parliament they have a flat in London.

She temporarily runs her business from London after she hears William Jones broke of his and Eleanor's engagement to marry a maid. Her and her father's relationship isn't the best, since she disobeyed him and started her own business however for the sake of Elanor they can stand to be in the same room as each other.

Kyo
Inari

Kyo is a senior and the Event Organizer for the student council at Imperial Academy. She doesn't care about Haine or Shizumasa's relationship since it created more ridiculous school events for her to budget, organize, and plan. However, she's happy about the end result.

While the rest of the student council was distracted however, she could have mini-relationships with underclassmen (something Shizumasa never approved of). She can be read as cold, but considering she's been studying for college entrance exams, planning all of the student council's ridiculous events, and working hard so she can take over her father's electric company after college, can you really blame her?

Shirayuki is a normal herbalist citizen in the kingdom of Tanbarun with one rare unique feature: her beautiful red hair. Due to her unusual hair color, Shirayuki was raised to always be careful of showing her hair in new surroundings and grew to be an independent young woman. However, her hair gets her noticed by Prince Raj, who orders her to become his concubine. Refusing his orders, she cuts her hair and leaves it behind as part of what he wanted and escapes to the neighboring kingdom of Clarines. On her way, she meets and befriends Prince Zen and his two aides Mitsuhide and Kiki. When Zen is poisoned by an apple meant for Shirayuki gifted by Raj, Shirayuki successfully obtains the antidote and decides to accompany the trio to Clarines. Shortly thereafter, Shirayuki passes an exam for a position to train in the palace as an herbalist. Shirayuki and her friends find a place in Clarines and carries out her duties as a court herbalist. Over the course of the story, Zen and Shirayuki begin to fall in love with each other and eventually begin a romantic relationship, despite opposition due to their difference in social status.

Ali Wistalia (25)

Ali is Zen's older sister, and the first princess of Clarines. She meets Shirayuki after the events of the anime. She is an academic and an explorer, and is only in Clarines twice a year. She has her own personal guard of 10 who travel with her and help her bring technology and arts from other cultures back to Clarines.

She adores her brother Zen, and still treats him as if he were 5 not 19. She loves her older brother Izana but they tend to disagree on politics surrounding rank. Her fiancé is Garack Gazelt, the head herbalist at Wistal Castle. Their plan is to get married next winter when Ali comes back from her excursion, but Garack highly doubts that it'll ever happen.

Emma is a story of a maid who falls in love with a member of the gentry, William Jones. However, the William's family disapproves of him associating with people of the lower classes, and attempts to set him up with Eleanor Campbell, the daughter of a viscount. In the end Emma and William get married.

Racheal Harper

Racheal is Eleanor Cambell's older sister. She lives with her husband, and runs a factory and shipping company in Hampshire. She's not particularly fond of her husband but considering he supports her and her business she really can't complain. Since her husband is a member of parliament they have a flat in London.

She temporarily runs her business from London after she hears William Jones broke of his and Eleanor's engagement to marry a maid. Her and her father's relationship isn't the best, since she disobeyed him and started her own business however for the sake of Eleanor they can stand to be in the same room as each other.

Haine Otomiya, a 15-year-old high school student at the elite private Imperial Academy, was apparently sold to the Otomiya family by her father, Kazuhito Kamiya, for 50 million yen. Disoriented with her place in life, she became a gang member until she met Shizumasa Tōgū, who told her to live life how she wanted to. Recognizing Shizumasa as the author of a treasured picture book given to her from father, Haine reformed herself and entered the Imperial Academy to try and win his love.

Kyo Inari

Kyo is a senior and the Event Organizer for the student council at Imperial Academy. She doesn't care about Haine or Shizumasa's relationship since it created more ridiculous school events for her to budget, organize, and plan. However, she's happy about the end result.

While the rest of the student council was distracted however, she could have mini-relationships with underclassmen (something Shizumasa never approved off). She can be read as cold, but considering she's been studying for college entrance exams, planning all of the student council's ridiculous events, and working hard so she can take over her father's electric company after college, can you really blame her?

This work is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License. To view a copy of this license, visit <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>.